Simple Present - negative sentences - short form

Examples: Simple Present negative

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Positive sentences</th>
<th>Negative sentences</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I go to school.</td>
<td>I don’t go to school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You go to school.</td>
<td>You don’t go to school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>He/She goes to school.</td>
<td>He/She doesn’t go to school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>We go to school.</td>
<td>We don’t go to school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You go to school.</td>
<td>You don’t go to school.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>They go to school.</td>
<td>They don’t go to school.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Fill in don’t or doesn’t and the infinitive.

I work at home. I don’t work at home.
You work at home. You don’t work at home.
He/She works at home. He/She doesn’t work at home.
We work at home. We don’t work at home.
You work at home. You don’t work at home.
They work at home. They don’t work at home.

2. Fill in don’t or doesn’t and the infinitive.

You work very hard. You don’t work very hard.
Jack plays the guitar. Jack doesn’t play the guitar.
They go to the club. They don’t go to the club.
Jake and Sue like rock music. Jake and Sue don’t like rock music.
She goes to the cinema. She doesn’t go to the cinema.
They play computer games. They don’t play computer games.
She lives in London. She doesn’t live in London.
We eat lunch at the restaurant. We don’t eat lunch at the restaurant.
My mother understands Spanish. My mother doesn’t understand Spanish.
Jake and Emma like Chinese takeaways. Jake and Emma don’t like Chinese takeaways.